

I'm worried about Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Last Modified on 03/08/2021 9:59 am BST

Coronavirus (COVID-19) is a new strain of coronavirus first identified in Wuhan City, China in December 2019.

Coronavirus (COVID-19) causes flu-like symptoms including a fever, a cough, or difficulty breathing. Generally, it can cause more severe symptoms in people with weakened immune systems, older people, and those with long-term conditions.

The University of Leeds have a general information page on how Coronavirus may affect your studies and what steps you can take here. You can read the University of Leeds FAQs relating to the current impact of Coronavirus on accommodation and catering here.

If you have any questions or concerns about Coronavirus (COVID-19) you can contact the LUU Help and Support team by emailing helpandsupport@luu.leeds.ac.uk or calling 0113 380 1400. You can read LUU's guidance on Coronavirus (COVID-19) here.

If you are experiencing financial hardship due to the current situation then you can contact the LUU Advice team by emailing advice@luu.leeds.ac.uk or calling us 0113 380 1400 to find out whether you are eligible for the Emergency Financial Assistance Fund.
